

The present is a Cleveland ad-ministrition.

The machines of the Democratic party do not take kindly to the new President.

Nor so much the President's in-annual address itself but the new-ity of the address is to be admired.

The Democrats will stand by Mr. Cleveland on the tariff. And on other matters, too, from sheet necessity more than from right.

The horrible fate of the five children who were suffocated or burned to death in New York should be a warning to all mothers who have formed the contemptible habit of locking the little ones up for only a few moments while they visit neighbors for several hours.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON is not a "statesman out of a job" - no, not by any means. He has agreed to lecture twice a week to a class of law students for the paltry salary of $25.00. He will be plain Prof. Harrison of Leland Stanford Uni-versity of California.

The Senate on March 6th, in executive session, approved all the Cabinet nominations sent in by President Cleveland as follows: Walter Q. Gresham, to be Secretary of State; John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky, to be Secretary of the Treasury; Daniel S. Lamont, of New York, to be Secretary of War; Richard Olney, of Massachusetts, to be Attorney General; Wilson S. Bissell, of New York, to be Postmaster General; Hilary A. Herbert, of Alabama, to be Secretary of the Navy; Hoke Smith, of Georgia, to be Secretary of the Interior; J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska, to be Secretary of Agriculture.

SLAUGHTERVILLE

If you are friend of Earlinton it is every way possible not only in d.c. which are more po-potent than empty boasting. Lay hold of the "I" that helps the prosperity of your own and turn your back on those that aim to retard and humiliate. A false friend is worse than an open enemy. A friend in sunshine will desert you in cloud and gloom. A man that will slander his town for personal advantage will slander his neighbors and take advantage of the weak to gratify a jealousy. Beware of those who are friends to your face and foes to your back. False pretense is a crime and he who practices it is a criminal. Greedy and selfish people are to be found in every community. They live for self and sell alone. Every thing is false to them except their own thieving greed and insatiate vanity. Build up your town. Relate to others to the rear. They are worse than a gossiping woman. Earlinton is now in the swing, and fools cannot check her in her prosperity.

MADISONVILLE

Have your laundry done at home.

Prof. Basson has returned from Maryland with his wife, who is much improved.

All our merchants, or nearly all, are about to launch new spring goods on the market.

Uncle Wash Wilson, a good old man died on Friday and was buried at Greenfield, Ind.

Will we ever rest from that mad dog scare of a few days ago? The dog is dead, and let peace reign and quietness unto the ashes.

Chas. H. Hanner has sold his interest in the grocery of Hanner & Fugate to his son-in-law, who is associated with Fugate in the business.

Rev. Robinson is still having large crowds to hear him expound the gospel at the Cumberland Church. Quite an interest is manifested.

A. P. Hanner & Co. will raise steam this week in their tobacco factory on Greenville Street. V. M. Slaton has a twill factory on the same street, near the subway.

J. T. Alexander is back home.

from New York, Washington and other eastern points, and great pleasure in presenting President Cleveland's regards to all his friends. He saw the President in an hour.

The Board of Supervisors of Madisonville, on this occasion, also comprised C. W. D. Orr, A. F. Winstead, C. L. Sisk, W. E. Jackson and A. J. Sisk. These gentlemen are wrestling with a mighty problem.

Orian B. Dowdy and Miss Rosa Brackett, of the Sulphur Springs neighborhood, are now Mr. and Mrs. Dowdy from this time on. The marriage was performed Wednesday, and congratulations of friends are extended to this happy couple.

Jas. L. Barthfield is home from Frankfort, where, he has been in session with the State Guards, planning and making other arrangements toward their encampment at the World's Fair in Chicago, next summer.

The spring stock now displayed by J. T. Scott & Co. is indeed interesting, and the crowds there are great. The firm has a well selected stock—none better in the market.

One day last week and attended the L. St. L. & T. road and for the present is home visiting relatives.

Fifty thousand dollars was the cost of a wreck occurring on one of the roads, and we should think, to most enough, we should think, to prevent them from declaring a dividend for a while.

The many friends of Curtis Lane regret very much to learn of the death of his wife, who departed this life last Friday evening after only a brief illness, and now in his hour of deepest sorrow extend unto us their sympathies.

One of the latest returns given by some of the western boys who want their salary increased is the sum of $100 per month.

That they must have more money from the company in order to meet the pay.

This is a great country, and the industrial progress of the country is due to its productivity, to reward the thrift of its people, and to bind them together in the pursuit of a cherished destiny of progress and happiness.

More passengers were carried on American railroads last year than there are men, women and children, Europe and Asia combined, in the United States. Fewer passengers were killed on all the railroads of the United States in a year than die in all the accidents in the city alone during three months according to the figures of the Board of Health.

The railroad mileage of Connecticut is greater according to the latest consolidation, which of late has been made, than all the railroads in the country, there are 1,250 separate railroad companies in Connecticut.

I am back from New York where I have been to see new spring stock. My customers demand none but the best and that they have bought for my patronage the best selected goods to be found anywhere. By close a price paid, fair dealing, we have a fine trade in leather and articles of leather which enables me to under-sell and out-sell all competitors. My new stock is already coming in. Call to see what I have for you.
